

Julie Sa'Leit'Sa' Kwina Johnson (Lummi)
Post Office Box 187, Neah Bay, Washington 98357
360-645-2548 Home 360-640-0222 Cell iuliej2012@gmail.com

Vote Julie Johnson for Vice Chair - 24th Legislative District

Family: Widow, Two Sons, Six Grandchildren, One Great Grand Son

Employment History: (Retired)

- Social & Health Grant Writer and Intergovernmental Relations for 25 years in the area of marketing local goals such as: (a) Securing research funding to study how to remove the Elwha Dams for the Lower Elwha Tribe. Secured $1.6 million to conduct environmental & related studies to restore habitat & develop a legal position and justification for the removal of the Dams under the direction of the Lower Elwha Klallam Tribal Council, a $350 million project. (b) Researched and developed grants for Head Start, LI-Heap, Self Governance Compacts, ANA Social and Economic Development Grant and related Social and Health tribal grant applications.
- Senior Grants Writer to research, develop and assist in securing funds to build a 250 boat marina for the Makah Tribe in Neah Bay, Washington. 10.3 million dollar project.
- Facilities Planner and Intergovernmental services to secure funding to build a Wellness Center including funding for the parking lot, road, and related infrastructure needs. $5 million project.

Consultant Services: (Semi Retired)

- Provides on-site college credit training for 46 tribes and Indian Organizations over the past 20 years
- Currently providing Health Education College Credits for Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board (43 Tribal Delegates from WA, OR & ID).

Volunteer Services: (Full-Time)

- For 21 years have organized a National Indian Women's Honoring Lunch in WA DC to recognize the accomplishment of Women Leaders from around the United States. Provide volunteer Domestic Violence support services at the local and national levels and training with college credits for Tribes & Indian Organizations.
- Northwest Indian College Foundation Vice Chair. Raise funds for scholarships for Native Students. We have 1,400 students from 130 Tribes who attend NW Indian College.

Honors:

- 2001: Selected as the "Distinguished Alumni for Antioch University" and Guest Speaker at the Antioch University Graduation
- 2002: Clallam County Appreciation Award for the development of Youth Services
- Peninsula State College Appreciation Award for 10 years of Volunteer Services as a Board of Trustee member. Appointed by two different Governor's of Washington State to represent West End of Clallam County on the College Board. Served as Board Chair for four years for this college which serves 10,000+ students.

- Two National Indian Health Board Awards: (a) Development of Home Health Care for Senior Citizen Services and (b) On-Site College Credit Training for Tribal Staff
- 2004: Northwest Indian Women “Endearing Spirit Award.” (WA, OR & ID - 43 Tribes)
- 2005: NWIC Foundation “Board Special Recognition Award” Goal to raise 44 Million for college facilities
- 2008: ATNI Native Vote – WA “Award of Excellence” Title: Amazing Role Model for Native Women
- 2008: WA State Democrat Central Committee: Vote WA State 2008 Hillary Delegate to Denver, Co.
- 2012: Female Clallam County Democrat of the Year Honor Award
- 2012: Potlatch Foundation: Pearl Capoeman-Baller Award: Community Service Award (WA, ID & OR)
- 2013: Women Empowering Women for Indian Nations (WE-WIN) Lifetime Achievement Award National Indian Women’s Leadership Award
- 2016: Elizabeth Peratrovich Tlingit & Haida Award “Civil Rights Award” at Honor Lunch at UW Intellectual House
- 2016: Guest Speaker at the Evergreen State College Graduation on June 5, 2016. Olympia, WA.
- Elected 2016 WA State Hillary Delegate to attend Democrat National Convention, Philadelphia. Penn.
- Elected 2016 Electoral College Representative - 6th District, WA State (Voted by Bernie and Hillary Delegates)
- 2016: Washington State Democrat Party awarded Julie Johnson with the Warren G Magnuson "Maggie Award" as the State Committee Member of the Year. September 17, 2016 in Yakima, Washington
- Affiliated Tribes of NW Indians (56 Tribes) honored Julie with an Appreciation Award at the September 26, 2016 Convention for her work supporting Native Candidates running for public office and community services for all people.

- Clallam County Democrat Annual Dinner Award – Appreciation Award October 8, 2016.
- Elected Chair of the Washington State “Elector College Representatives” on December 19, 2016 by the Washington State 12 Electors.